Completing a Provisional Ballot

- The provisional voter is given one ballot, provisional envelope and pencil to complete the ballot in a private area

The image shows two sample provisional ballots for Louisiana. The left ballot is for the President and Vice President of the United States, and the right ballot is for the U.S. Senator and U.S. Representative. Both ballots are marked with a large red 'X' and the text 'SAMPLE ONLY' diagonally across them. The ballots include instructions for voters, a list of candidates, and a section for the voter to mark their choice.

This image shows a sample provisional ballot for Louisiana, specifically for the U.S. Senator and U.S. Representative. The ballot is marked with a large red 'X' and the text 'SAMPLE ONLY' diagonally across it. It includes instructions for voters, a list of candidates, and a section for the voter to mark their choice. The ballot number is 10010110010.

A pen can also be used but once marked, changes cannot be made.

Replacing a Provisional Ballot

Pg. 72

- If the provisional voter makes a mistake and the voter decides to make a correction, the ballot is considered a “Spoiled” ballot

Replacement Provisional Ballot Instructions:

- The commissioner shall instruct the voter to write “SPOILED” on their ballot and seal the spoiled ballot in the envelope
- The commissioner shall write “SPOILED” across the flap of the envelope and place in the Election Day Provisional Packet (ED-PP)
- The commissioner shall give the voter a replacement ballot and envelope

The Completed Ballot

- When finished, the voter will place the completed ballot inside envelope, seal it and return the envelope to the commissioner.

The image shows the front of a ballot envelope. At the top, a header box contains the text "BALLOT ENVELOPE MUST BE SEALED" and "DO NOT DETACH AFFIDAVIT FLAP". Below this, the text "FOR PROVISIONAL BALLOT ONLY" is underlined. Further down, a warning states: "VIOLATION OF PROVISIONAL VOTING LAWS VOIDS BALLOT AND MAY RESULT IN CRIMINAL PENALTIES".
