MOTION FOR REVIEW OF CHILD SUPPORT AMOUNT

NOW INTO COURT come _____ (Mover) and avers on information and belief that there has been a substantial change in circumstances pursuant to the Louisiana Child Support Guidelines.

Mover avers that he/she is entitled to a modification of the child support because of the following material change in circumstances:

- Involuntary unemployment
- Reduction in income
- Order changing custody or visitation
- Child turns 18 and is not in high school
- Child's living arrangement changes
- Change in childcare costs
- Other (describe)
- New employment
- Increase in income
- Adding or dropping medical insurance
- Extraordinary medical expenses
- Increase or decrease in expenses for child

Mover further avers that in order to prove that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the last order of child support, attached hereto are answers to Interrogatories which set forth current Income and Expenses for Mover. Mover will provide court copies of his/her last Federal and State Income Tax Return and copies of his/her last two paycheck stubs.

WHEREFORE, Mover prays that this Court Order _____ to appear and Show Cause why the amount of Child Support presently ordered herein not reviewed and set according to the Louisiana Child Support Guidelines.
